CHAPTER 34.

An act to authorize the secretary of state to furnish the county of Pender with certain books which have never been furnished to said county.

WHEREAS, The county of Pender was created in the year one thousand and eight hundred and seventy-four, and was not organized until one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, and has never been furnished with the reports of the supreme court of North Carolina or the laws and journals of the General Assembly of North Carolina which have been published before the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-seven: now, therefore,

Preamble.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact:

SECTION 1. That the secretary of state be and he is hereby authorized and instructed to furnish, without charge, to the clerk of the superior court of Pender county, or to his successor in office, to be kept in the office of said clerk for the benefit of said county, one copy of each volume of the reports of the supreme court of North Carolina and one copy of each volume of the public and private laws and journals of the General Assembly of North Carolina that had been published prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-eight, and furnish said county in course of distribution as provided by law out of such reports, laws and journals as may be in the hands of the secretary of state not otherwise distributed under existing laws.

Secretary of State to furnish Pender county with certain books.

SEC. 2. That if any of said reports, laws or journals are not in print, the secretary of state be and he is hereby authorized and instructed to furnish the same to the clerk of the superior court of said county, or his successor in office, for the benefit of said county, as hereinbefore provided, as soon as the same shall be reprinted: Provided, this act shall not apply to any volume of the supreme court reports prior to the sixty-third volume: Provided further, this act shall not be construed to direct the republication of any reports, laws or journals.

Books, &c., not in print to be furnished when printed.
